

Golookup.com makes it easy to do your own background check for personal safety reasons, or if you're trying to locate lost relatives or friends. However, under the Fair Credit and Reporting Act (FCRA), you are restricted from using Golookup.com for certain activities, and it is illegal to use third-party background services such as Golookup.com for reasons such as spying on people, identity theft, or contacting people against their wishes. Read through our Dos and Don'ts below for a handy guide on how you can legally use our easy, intuitive background check service.

Don'ts - Prohibited Uses

1. Don't use Golookup.com for employment screening, of any kind. You must follow Fair Credit and Reporting Act guidelines for employment screening, including hiring, promotions, or for employee reviews.
2. Don't use Golookup.com for screening domestic help, including caretakers, nannies, or gardeners. You must follow Fair Credit and Reporting Act guidelines for domestic help employment.
3. Don't use Golookup.com for tenant screening if you lease or rent residential or commercial property.
4. Don't use Golookup.com for educational screening or to verify qualifications for scholarships or programs.
5. Don't use Golookup.com to look up eligibility for insurance programs.
6. Don't use Golookup.com to determine credit eligibility, for issuing mortgages, or for business transactions.
7. Don't use Golookup.com to stalk, spy on people, or contact them against their wishes.
8. Don't use Golookup.com for identity theft of any kind.

Do's - Permitted Uses

1. Do use Golookup.com to look up a lost love.
2. Do use Golookup.com to find family members or friends.
3. Do use Golookup.com to research a potential roommate.
4. Do use Golookup.com to check out an online date.
5. Do use Golookup.com to locate addresses for invitations or cards.
6. Do use Golookup.com to verify buyers for personal online sales and transactions.
7. Do use Golookup.com to look up public record court documents. It will save you time from going directly to the courts to look up records!
8. Do use Golookup.com to research your own public records. It's good to know what's out there for your own peace-of-mind!
9. Do use Golookup.com to learn more about your neighbors.
