

Daniel Scott

Python Developer

📍 Edgewood, KY, USA

Profile

Delivered effective production to 10+ companies, from startups to Fortune 500s, with a focus on Blockchain, Healthcare, Ecommerce and etc & Web/Mobile project management and development for maximizing marketing strategy, branding and sales - all executed via exemplary leadership and engagement skills.

Professional Experience

FullStack Engineer, Amazon

02/2024 – 08/2025

Arlington, Virginia, USA

- Built internal services for a staking platform using Python, FastAPI, PostgreSQL, Django and integrated APIs for frontend consumption.
- Optimized backend communication protocols and performance under high traffic with async I/O, Redis, and WebSockets.
- Managed data workflows across SQL/NoSQL storage systems, ensuring reliable integration with user-facing features.
- Developed and deployed smart contracts (Solidity, Web3.py) across multiple blockchain networks, coordinating app-layer integration.
- Engineered efficient contract logic supporting platform features with focus on scalability and stability.
- Partnered with frontend teams (React, TypeScript) to align backend services with product requirements.
- Integrated LLM services (LangChain, OpenAI API) into internal tools, enabling automation, semantic search, and developer productivity.
- Implemented prompt-chaining and vector search (Pinecone, FAISS) to deliver intelligent application features.

Senior Python Developer, Johnson & Johnson

02/2022 – 12/2023

New Brunswick, New Jersey, USA

- Delivered 10+ web and mobile applications end-to-end, building both backend services (Python, Django, FastAPI) and user-facing features.
- Owned critical mobile functionality by implementing core service logic, REST APIs, and smooth frontend integration with React Native/Flutter.
- Completed full-stack development of portal and platform sites, working across UI layers, workflows, and backend systems.
- Architected a streamlined platform, designing scalable microservices, CI/CD pipelines, and cloud integrations (AWS, Docker, Kubernetes) to connect frontend and backend processes.
- Led a small engineering team, gathering client requirements and delivering complete features, ensuring alignment between backend services and modern frontend frameworks (React, TypeScript).

Python Developer, United Airlines

02/2020 – 12/2021

Chicago, Illinois, USA

- Contributed to server-side (Python, Django, FastAPI) and client-side (React, TypeScript) development across multiple platforms, maintaining core application features.
- Built scalable services capable of processing large data volumes with PostgreSQL, Redis, and async I/O, ensuring smooth integration with user interfaces.

- Participated in the creation and enhancement of 20+ web services, supporting backend logic and frontend consumption layers.
- Applied architectural patterns (MVC, microservices) and concurrency techniques (multithreading, asyncio) to improve responsiveness and user experience.
- Prepared applications for deployment by containerizing services (Docker) and ensuring reliability in distributed environments (Kubernetes, AWS).

Junior Python Developer, Berkshire Hathaway

09/2018 – 12/2019
Omaha, Nebraska, USA

- Maintained and enhanced services across web and mobile platforms, ensuring smooth functionality from backend logic (Python, Django, FastAPI) to user-facing interfaces.
- Developed new features by contributing to server processes and frontend components (React, TypeScript), improving usability and overall system behavior.
- Reorganized data structures (PostgreSQL, MongoDB) and refined information flow to boost performance and support product scalability.
