MOST PROUD OF

What are you most proud of?

- Participated in developing an all-in-one unified training platform with 20+ talented professionals. It is a large-scaled platform with all the tools and expertise we need to learn, teach and collaborate online. This was the great chance for me to develop myself from a junior to a senior full stack, and it's obviously one of the greatest moment in my developer life.

- Participated in developing an innovative mobile application with professionals from all over the world. The app is currently live on the App store & Google store and has millions of downloads. It certainly has been one of the most proud moment in my life.

LIFE PHILOSOPHY

It always seems impossible until it's done.
